Revelation - Revelation 21:3 -
How does this verse fulfill Old Testament promises such as
Ezekiel 37:27 and Leviticus
26:11-12?

How does this verse fulfill Old Testament promises such as Ezekiel 37:27 and Leviticus 26:11-12?

Revelation 21:3 directly echoes and fulfills Old Testament promises like Ezekiel 37:27 and Leviticus 26:11-12, which spoke of a future time when God would dwell permanently with His people.

Revelation 21:3

"Behold, the tabernacle of God is among the people, and He will dwell among them, and they shall be His people, and God Himself will be among them..."

Ezekiel 37:27

"My dwelling place also will be among them, and I will be their God, and they will be My people."

Leviticus 26:11-12

"Moreover, I will make My dwelling among you, and My soul will not reject you. I will also walk among you and be your God, and you shall be My people."

Fulfillment:

In the Old Testament, these were future covenant promises, tied to restoration and renewed relationship.

Revelation 21:3 presents this as a consummated reality, not future, but present in the New Jerusalem.

Through Christ, God tabernacled among us (John 1:14), and through the Spirit He now dwells within His people (1 Corinthians 3:16).

Ezekiel's vision was of God dwelling with restored Israel, in Revelation 21, we see the spiritual Israel, the Church, as God's dwelling.

The Old Covenant types (tabernacle, temple) pointed forward to this spiritual reality, God with His people permanently, not in a building but in His body, the Church.

In the fulfilled view, this shows that all the promises of God dwelling with man were realized through Jesus and His kingdom, not waiting for a future temple or physical city.
