

Fulfilled Prophecies

Home

>

T

>

Share on Facebook

FACEBOOK LINK

[Tear - He Sees
Every Tear Psalm
56:8-11](#)

By Dan Maines

He Sees Every Tear

Psalm 56:8-11 (NASB)

You have taken account of my miseries,

Put my tears in Your bottle.

Are they not in Your book?

Then my enemies will turn back on the day when I call;

This I know, that God is for me.

In God, whose word I praise,

In the Lord, whose word I praise,

In God I have put my trust, I shall not be afraid.

What can mankind do to me?

Brothers and Sisters,

There are moments in life when the soul sinks so low, it feels like no one sees. But this passage reminds us, God does.

"You have taken account of my miseries, put my tears in Your bottle."

Not one tear goes unnoticed. Not one sorrow slips past Him.

Psalm 34:18 says, "The Lord is near to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit."

He is not distant in our grief. He is present, and He writes it all down.

"Are they not in Your book?"

Job 16:20 says, "My friends are my scoffers, my eye weeps to God."

Job didn't understand the pain he was in, but even his tears were prayers.

When you're so broken that words fail, tears become your voice and God hears them.

"Then my enemies will turn back on the day when I call."

Revelation 6:10 – "How long, O Lord, holy and true, will You refrain from judging and avenging our blood?"

Those martyrs were not ignored. Their pain mattered.

God brought justice in that generation. The cries of the oppressed were answered.

"In God, whose word I praise... I shall not be afraid. What can mankind do to me?"

Fear loses its grip when we realize that God holds the record of every wound.

Isaiah 25:8 – "He will wipe tears away from all faces."

That wasn't pushed off into some distant future. It began when the old things passed away and the New Covenant stood in full.

But let's not pretend the pain isn't real.

Ecclesiastes 3:4 says there is "a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance."

The early church had their time to weep, persecuted, scattered, misunderstood.

Jesus Himself wept. John 11:35 – "Jesus wept."

He knew He was going to raise Lazarus, but He still shared in the sorrow of His people.

And Revelation 21:4 promised something beautiful to them.

"And He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and there will no longer be death, there will no longer be mourning, or crying, or pain."

That promise wasn't for a far-off future, it was fulfilled in the victory of the Lamb and the fall of the old order.

The first things passed away. The Old Covenant with its condemnation, with its separation, with its sorrow, was finished.

So what about us?

We still grieve. We still lose loved ones. We still face hardship.

But we do it in a kingdom where Christ reigns, where tears are seen, and where healing flows.

2 Corinthians 1:3-4 says, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our affliction."

He sees. He knows. He remembers. He comforts.

Psalm 30:5 – "Weeping may last for the night, but a shout of joy comes in the morning."

The night did not last forever for the early saints, and it won't for you either.

So if you have wept in silence, if you have cried out in the dark, if your heart has ached in ways no one else has seen, know this:

God saw it.

He saved it.

He wrote it down.

And He will never waste a single tear.

The kingdom is here.

He reigns now.

And He walks with you still.

Amen.

Share on Facebook

Links

Facebook Link

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/1349070089314462/posts/1750816695806464/>

Fulfilled Prophecies <https://www.facebook.com/groups/1349070089314462/>

Dan Maines

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/1349070089314462/user/100001027365819/>

You may share this article freely without permission as long as you include credit to Dan Maines and/or a link to the Fulfilled Prophecies Group.