Kingdom - The Unshakable Kingdom: Standing After the Storm

By Dan Maines

The Unshakable Kingdom: Standing After the Storm

Hebrews 12:26-27

And His voice shook the earth then, but now He has promised, saying, "Yet once more I will shake not only the earth, but also the heaven." This expression, "Yet once more," denotes the removing of those things which can be shaken, as of created things, so that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

† The writer of Hebrews recalls God's shaking of Mount Sinai, then applies it to a greater shaking that would remove the old covenant system entirely.

† The phrase "yet once more" means it would happen only one final time. It was not a global event but a covenantal one.

† Heaven and earth symbolize the temple order, the covenant world of Israel that was about to be shaken and removed.

† What remained after this shaking was the kingdom that cannot be moved, the eternal reign of Christ.

Haggai 2:6-7

For thus says the Lord of hosts, Once more in a little while, I am going to shake the heavens and the earth, the sea also and the dry land. I will shake all the nations, and they will come with the wealth of all nations, and I will fill this house with glory, says the Lord of hosts.

† Haggai's prophecy points to the same final shaking quoted in Hebrews.

† God promised to fill His house with glory, not by rebuilding the old temple, but by establishing the spiritual house made of living stones.

† The shaking of the nations represented the transfer of worship and authority from the old order to the new.

† This prophecy was fulfilled when Christ's kingdom was revealed and His people became the new temple of God.

Hebrews 12:28

Therefore, since we receive a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us show gratitude, by which we may offer to God an acceptable service with reverence and awe.

† The kingdom was not something future but something already received. The writer speaks in the present tense.

† The contrast is between the old, temporary system that could be shaken and the new, eternal one that cannot.

† Gratitude is the proper response of those living in the unshakable kingdom.

† Service, reverence, and awe flow from knowing that this kingdom will never fall or fade.

Daniel 2:44

In the days of those kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom which will never be destroyed, and that kingdom will not be left for another people; it will crush and put an end to all these kingdoms, but it will itself endure forever.

† Daniel saw the same indestructible kingdom that Hebrews calls "unshakable."

† The "days of those kings" refer to the Roman era, proving the kingdom was established in the first century.

† It crushed the power of every preceding world empire, not through war, but through the power of truth and the Spirit.

† The unshakable nature of this kingdom fulfills Daniel's prophecy completely, no other kingdom follows it.

Matthew 7:24-25

Therefore everyone who hears these words of Mine and acts on them, may be compared to a wise man who built his house on the rock. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and slammed against that house; and yet it did not fall, for it had been founded on the rock.

† Jesus' parable of the house on the rock perfectly mirrors the message of Hebrews, what is built on the foundation of Christ cannot be shaken.

† The storm represents the covenantal judgment that swept away all built on sand, meaning all built on the law and human effort.

† The wise man's house stands because it is founded on the eternal word, not the temporary system.

† The Church stands unshaken after the storm, the new creation secured forever in Christ.

Revelation 11:15

Then the seventh angel sounded; and there were loud voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ; and He will reign forever and ever."

† The last trumpet confirms that the shaking had ended, what remained was eternal and immovable.

† Heaven proclaimed the completion of all prophecy and the full establishment of Christ's reign.

† The unshakable kingdom had now replaced the old covenant heavens and earth.

† The eternal reign of Christ stands as the unending reality of redemption.

How it applies to us today

† We live in the kingdom that survived the final shaking. Nothing can remove or alter it.

† Every trial, persecution, or storm we face cannot move what God has established in Christ.

† The Church is not waiting to receive the kingdom, we are the living expression of it.

† Gratitude, stability, and peace belong to all who stand on this unshakable foundation.

† The storm has passed, the shaking has ceased, and the eternal kingdom stands forever.
