Creation Declared Good and Fully Revealed

Introduction

† Creation is not a vague spiritual idea, it is the deliberate and powerful act of God revealed plainly in Scripture.

† From the fulfilled perspective, creation establishes Gods authority, purpose, and right to judge and redeem His people.

† Creation is foundational to understanding covenant, sin, redemption, and fulfillment.

Genesis 1:1

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

† Scripture begins with God, not chaos, chance, or myth.

† Creation is presented as a completed act initiated by Gods will alone.

† This establishes Gods sovereignty over all that follows in redemptive history.

Genesis 1:31

God saw all that He had made, and behold, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

† Creation was not flawed or cursed at its origin.

† Death and corruption were not built into creation, they entered later through sin.

† This affirms that Gods creative work was intentional, orderly, and good.

John 1:3

All things came into being through Him, and apart from Him nothing came into being that has come into being.

† Creation is inseparable from Christ, He is not absent from Genesis.

† Christ is the active agent through whom all creation exists.

† This unites creation and redemption under the same divine authority.

Colossians 1:16

For by Him all things were created, both in the heavens and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities, all things have been created through Him and for Him.

† Creation has purpose, it exists for Christ, not for man alone.

† Authority structures are part of the created order and accountable to Him.

† This supports a covenantal framework rather than a materialistic one.

Romans 1:20

For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes, that is, His eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, being understood by what has been made, so that they are without excuse.

† Creation itself renders humanity accountable before God.

† Gods power and nature were never hidden, they were revealed through what He made.

† This removes any claim that ignorance excuses rebellion against God.

Psalms 19:1

The heavens are telling of the glory of God, And their expanse is declaring the work of His hands.

† Creation functions as ongoing testimony to Gods glory.

† The created order speaks without words yet communicates truth clearly.

† This confirms that creation itself participates in divine revelation.

Hebrews 11:3

By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things which are visible.

† Creation is not self originating or eternal.

† Gods word stands as the source of all existence.

† This affirms creation as intentional and governed by divine command.

Isaiah 45:18

For thus says the Lord, who created the heavens, He is the God who formed the earth and made it, He established it and did not create it a waste place, but formed it to be inhabited, I am the Lord, and there is none else.

† God created the earth with purpose, not chaos.

† Creation was designed for life and order.

† This refutes claims that creation was flawed or provisional.

Acts 17:24

The God who made the world and all things in it, since He is Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands.

† Creation establishes Gods authority over all religious systems.

† God is not contained by structures within creation.

† This anticipates the passing of the temple system and covenant fulfillment.

Ecclesiastes 12:1

Remember also your Creator in the days of your youth, before the evil days come and the years draw near when you will say, I have no delight in them.

- † Scripture assumes a real Creator, not a covenant construct.
- † Accountability to God is grounded in creation itself.
- † This reinforces Romans 1, creation precedes covenant judgment.

Isaiah 40:26

Lift up your eyes on high And see who has created these stars,
The One who leads forth their host by number, He calls them all by name, Because of the greatness of His might and the strength of His power, Not one of them is missing.

- † Creation is observable and measurable, not symbolic abstraction.
- † Gods power is displayed through the physical order He made.
- † This affirms creation as tangible evidence of divine authority.

2 Peter 3:5

For when they maintain this, it escapes their notice that by the word of God the heavens existed long ago and the earth was formed out of water and by water.

- † Peter treats creation as historical fact, not covenant metaphor.
- † Creation is distinct from later judgment language in the chapter.
- † This separates real creation from covenantal destruction imagery.

Historical References

- † Justin Martyr affirmed that creation reveals the true God to all nations.
- † Irenaeus taught that creation was intentionally ordered and declared good by God.
- † Tertullian opposed allegorical denials of creation, affirming its historic reality.

† Josephus recorded creation as a real beginning acknowledged within Jewish history.

How It Applies To Us Today

† Creation reminds us that Gods authority precedes and governs all covenants.

† We live within a world that continually testifies to His power and truth.

† Fulfillment does not deny creation, it confirms its purpose through Christ.

† Gods authority is rooted in creation and confirmed through fulfillment.

† Creation remains the foundation for accountability, truth, and worship.

† This is the fulfilled perspective we proclaim at Fulfilled Prophecies †
